6.0 Reports

6.1 Principal Report

a. Nancy's special announcement, Devin has received the Golden Apple Teacher award from the district.

b. Admin Transition- Nancy is preparing Transition Folders for the new principal. She is also trying to fix any lingering issues to make the transition as smooth as possible. The new principal Josh Hinds, will be visiting one of the upcoming Thursdays in the next few weeks to meet the village.

c. Update on ConnectED book- Nancy shared the book they have created for Nanwalek with a page about Port Graham. It will be published soon.

d. School Events- Gwennie will not be able to come to Sea Week this year. Debra Harris will be bringing an artist from the university.

e. Miscellaneous- Review of Important dates for the remainder of the school year. There has been a request to open the Gym throughout the summer. There will be no one from the school staff on the premises. The site council expresses concern for a regular Gym Night but is comfortable with organized events being held if run through the correct channels.

*Next meeting we need to choose a site council member to sit on stage for graduation

6.2 Support Report - Melissa Hetrick

Melissa reports that things have been going smoothly for the school.

6.3 Teacher Reports - Devin Michel Way; Colby Way

Devin~ She is very humbled by the award. The class has been focusing a lot on science and math recently. Kids have been stepping up with experiments so they are able to do more. Excited about new apps. Looking forward to a plant unit after spring break and possibly butterflies again.

Colby~ Salmon, Chickens, Plants, and Students are all alive and working. Students are still adjusting back from break but middle school has been on point especially with Melissa's help. Eggs for Elders project will kick back in next week. Spring Cross Country will be coming back after Spring Break. Student Council is hoping to do a community outreach project and Junior Council is chomping at the bit to start their mural project.
