Colby talked about Math Space the new app that he is using in his classroom, and how it has helped to make his life a bit easier, cross country and how well the students are doing, chickens and the students learning to care for them and problem solve creating a fence area for the chickens, and student council for the high school. We are separating into a Student council 8th-12th, who will work on community aspects, and a Junior Council 5th-7th, who will be in charge of a beautification project. Devin shared that her class is working on a large Space unit thanks to Project grad's Chris Etwiler offering a box of curriculum and help. Also, we have purchased an Ozmo for the iPads where the students use tiles to work through programs, they are also using a website Moby Max that has helped Devin to spend more time with the students rather than assessing the students, and that she will be opening the library twice a month to the public for taking out books and story times.
